Missionaries to Northern Brazil

REST IS NOT IDLENESS IN MISSIONS

APRIL & MAY 2019

BACK TO THE FIELD...

Mary and I will be returning to the field May 28th, 2019 for our 10th term of service in Northern Brazil. Four of these terms were 4 year periods, four were 5 year periods and one was for 3 years. All but 2 of our furloughs were for one year, one was for 2 years because of surgeries and another was for 1½ years also due to health reasons. We do not know how much more time God will give us to serve Him here, but we are looking forward to continuing our mission endeavors and are expecting great things from our LORD. Although Mary wasn't able to accompany me during much of this furlough, you, our supporting churches, have been understanding and gracious, supplying our needs here and many of those for our personal and ministerial needs in Brazil.

GRATEFULNESS TO GOD...

As Mary and I reflect upon the past months of this furlough and, upon the years God has given us to serve Him, it behooves us to proclaim "How Great Thou Art, O Lord God!" "How Wonderful And Blessed Is Our Omnipotent Lord!" "O What A Savior!" He bountifully supplies the needs of all His children. And, we thank you, dear Brothers and Sisters, for allowing God to use you in the global evangelistic ministries of your local church body, Reaching Forth to a lost and dying world with the Message of Salvation.

FORWARD TO THE WORK...

There are, at present, only eight Baptist churches of all types in the 31 residential neighborhoods of the two municipalities of Marituba and Benevides, Pará and, only three of those churches are fundamental Baptist. In all, there are 144 municipalities in Pará - So few Gospel preaching churches - So many open doors! Will you Pray for God's Leadership?

In Christ Jesus, our soon returning Redeemer,

Bill and Mary
