Dear Friends,

As we approach Christmas day, I am reminded that Jesus was the greatest missionary that ever lived. He left His home and came to a "foreign" land for the purpose of bringing salvation to you and I. I am thankful for the "exceeding great and precious promises" (2 Peter 1:4) that He has given to us. We appreciate your prayers as we continue to take the good news of these promises to the people in Korea.

We left Springfield on December 4th and arrived back in Korea on December 5th and since then we have been able to meet with several pastors and missionaries in Korea. As we continue ministry in Korea, God has led us to assist Yongsan Baptist Church and the ministries here. The missionary that is currently serving in this work will be leaving on furlough and we will be "filling in" for him and his family as they are back in the States. We will also be assisting other missionaries carry out the great commission. If you have any questions regarding our plans for the next several years, please contact me. I can be reached via email (daniel@danielelliottfamily.us) or by phone (417-429-0362).

While we were on medical furlough, Brother Bern has done a fabulous job with the Bible study at G-tower. As he has been teaching this Bible study for the past several months, he will continue to teach it. We will continue to work with Brother Bern in discipleship and continued growth. I know he would appreciate your prayers as he is burdened for his country, Thailand.

We would like to express our sincere thanks to those that have sent Christmas gifts this year. Your faithful prayers and support are appreciated.

For Souls,

Daniel Elliott
