

Harmon's Heart - Furlough Arrival

Furlough

Furlough is a loaded word for a missionary. It evokes many feelings. Feelings that a mother bird may have when it pushes its fledgling chicks towards the edge of the nest in preparation for flight. Feelings of joy at seeing family that you did not expect to see again this side of eternity. (See above) Feelings of excitement to tell what God is doing in your "foreign" mission field. . . and many untold more.

We praise the Lord that we arrived in the States a week ago after 3 uneventful flights. Thank you for your prayers as we flew almost 7 miles high at night above Hurricane Maria. We hardly noticed any turbulence.

Should you need to get in touch with us our US phone number is: 763-318-0285. Otherwise email is a good option as well at:

Looking forward to seeing you all soon!
